

Loss History Verification

An insurance company uses facts such as prior experience and loss history to determine if an account qualifies for coverage. As an incentive for the company to quote a price and issue a policy on my behalf, I guarantee that this form includes a true representation of the facts.

_____ Initials

My business is a new venture as of _____. I have not owned and operated a taxi company prior to this date.

_____ Initials

The following list includes all claims, losses or accidents either I or someone working for me have been involved in.

Date	Description of incident	Total Amount Paid & Reserved

Neither I nor anyone driving for me has had a claim, or been involved in a loss or accident within the past 4 years.

_____ Initials

I understand that misrepresentation of the facts may cause my policy to be invalid and void. In addition, misrepresentation of the facts may result in cancellation of my insurance coverage.
